Broken Things

Margie M. Baker

Although a pitcher in the hand
Of each of Gideon's faithful band
Contained a burning, shining lamp -
They brought no fear to the enemy camp....until broken.

The vessel on the potter's wheel,
Though he had wrought the work with zeal
And fashioned it of finest clay,
In his hand still useless lay.....until broken.

The fish and loaves the little lad
Gave to our Lord, though all he had,
Could not have met the need of food
For all the hungry multitude....until broken.

The alabaster box, though sweet,
Could not have bathed the Master's feet
With Mary's gift of rare perfume,
Nor its fragrance filled the room....until broken.

The body of our blessed Lord,
According to God's Holy Word,
Though clean and pure without, within,
Could not have set us free from sin....until broken.

The too-proud heart of fallen man
Will make him do the best he can
To work his way to heaven above
And won't accept the Savior's love...until broken.

The Christian's will, tis sad to see,
Will often resist the Spirit's plea
To cleanse the heart, that He may fill
It with His own sweet, sovereign will...until broken

WHAT IF WE BEGAN TO TREAT OUR BIBLES THE WAY WE TREATED OUR CELL PHONES?

WHAT IF WE...

- ...carried it with us everywhere?
- ...turn back to get it if we forgot it?
- ...checked it for messages throughout the day?
- ...used it in case of emergencies?
- ...spend an hour or more each day using it?

What would our lives look like?
